In a hybrid work environment, noise is a top concern regardless of where you decide to work that day. Therefore, having a business headset is required to keep you focused and sounding professional.

Product overview

Cisco is expanding its 700 Series headset line to include a lightweight headset with Bluetooth® that is designed for your hybrid lifestyle – at the office or at home.

The Cisco Headset 720 Series is an on-ear and wireless style that has everything you need in a business headset.

The lightweight design and two wearing styles provides all day comfort paired with easy connectivity, 276° rotation boom arm with flip-to-mute, and the all-new one button to join for Webex or Microsoft Teams.
